ECP ANNOUNCES FIRST-EVER NONSTOP FLIGHT TO NEW YORK CITY WITH DELTA AIR LINES

Connecting New York City and Northwest Florida for Summer Travel

PANAMA CITY, Fla. (Friday, February 28, 2025) — Northwest Florida Beaches International Airport (ECP) announces that Delta Air Lines will be launching new seasonal Saturday service between LaGuardia Airport (LGA) and ECP for Summer 2025. The new service will begin on June 14, 2025, and will operate once weekly on Saturdays. Additionally, Delta will offer daily service from June 28, 2025, to July 6, 2025, to accommodate travelers for the 4th of July holiday. The flights will run through Labor Day and will be operated on Delta's CRJ-900 aircraft.

Parker W. McClellan Jr., A.A.E., Executive Director of ECP highlighted the significance of this new route, stating, "This is a historic moment for ECP as we introduce our first-ever nonstop flight to New York City. Partnering with Delta Air Lines to offer this new seasonal service will provide our passengers with more convenient travel options and enhance connectivity between New York City and the beautiful beaches of Northwest Florida. We are proud to bring this exciting opportunity to our Region and look forward to welcoming travelers from the Big Apple."

Delta is America's most-awarded airline leading the way to deliver a world-class customer experience on up to 5,000 daily flights to more than 290 destinations on six continents, connecting people to places and to each other.

Starting Saturday, March 1, 2025, passengers can book their flights directly through Delta or by using the new FlyMyAirport booking tool available on the ECP website.
