ECP SPONSORS 12TH ANNUAL 30A SONGWRITERS FESTIVAL

PANAMA CITY BEACH, Fla. (January 10, 2022) Northwest Florida Beaches International Airport (ECP) is proud to be a sponsor of the 12th Annual 30A Songwriters Festival set for January 14-17, 2022 in partnership with the Cultural Alliance of Walton County.

“We enjoy playing a part in bringing the 12th Annual 30A Songwriters Festival to life as we continue a tradition that was put on pause last year due to the pandemic,” said Parker W. McClellan Jr., A.A.E, ECP Airport Executive Director. “We look forward to welcoming world-class musicians and festival attendees flying to our Region from all over the country for this year’s event.”

Since the Festival’s inception in 2010, it has become the biggest and most prestigious songwriters’ festival in the southeast, winning many national accolades and garnering sell-out crowds year after year. With over 250 artists in the festival lineup performing over the four-day weekend in 30+ venues, this year’s event is set to be bigger and better than ever before. Amphitheaters, town halls, bars, restaurants and more make up the various venues the 30A Songwriters Festival production team will transform for the event. This year, the festival will even welcome new headliners to the main outdoor amphitheater stage such as Mavis Staples, Chris & Rich Robinson (the Black Crowes), Dawes, Jenny Lewis and Rickie Lee Jones.

As the event has always been conducted, all proceeds will be held in benefit of the nonprofit Cultural Arts Alliance of Walton County (CAA), which supports artists, nonprofit cultural events and businesses across the nation. The proceeds of the event will directly fund CAA’s annual budget and will be integral in the organization’s ability to advance Arts in Walton County and beyond through leadership, advocacy, funding, programs and education.

ECP is the official stage sponsor at Caliza. For more information, visit <https://30asongwritersfestival.com/>.
