ECP and Delta Air Lines Expand Service to New York City with Daily Nonstop Flights Starting in November

New Route Enhances Year-Round Connectivity Between the Big Apple and Northwest Florida's Beautiful Beaches

PANAMA CITY, Fla. (Wednesday, May 7, 2025) — Northwest Florida Beaches International Airport (ECP) announces that Delta Air Lines will be expanding its service to include new daily flights between New York-LaGuardia Airport (LGA) and ECP starting November 6, 2025. This announcement follows the news that Delta will offer seasonal Saturday service between LGA and ECP for Summer 2025. The new year-round route will be operated with an Embraer 175 aircraft, providing passengers with a comfortable and efficient travel experience.

“This expanded nonstop service announcement is a testament to the growing demand for travel to our Region,” said Parker W. McClellan Jr., A.A.E., Executive Director of ECP. “Partnering with Delta Air Lines to offer this year-round service will provide our passengers with more convenient travel options and enhance connectivity between New York City and the beautiful beaches of Northwest Florida. We are proud to bring this exciting opportunity to our Region and look forward to welcoming travelers from the Big Apple.”

Delta is America's most-awarded airline leading the way to deliver a world-class customer experience on up to 5,000 daily flights to more than 290 destinations on six continents, connecting people to places and to each other.

Passengers can book their flights directly through Delta or by using the new FlyMyAirport booking tool available on the ECP website.
